

The St. Catharines Rowing Alumni Association

MARCH 2023 NEWSLETTER

Well, glad to see February gone, winter just doesn't want to give up yet.

The clubhouse has been busy with meetings this past month. S.C.R.C., C.H.R.C., HENLEY Commission, and 2024 Worlds. All have used our hall to start planning for this upcoming year and beyond.

The Alumni would like to welcome the new SCRC president, Dave Derry, and wish him the best during his term at the helm.

Dave Campbell and Joey Martin have been busy at the club finishing upgrades to the back storage area. Joey would like some input at our next meeting in regards to dealing with the old panelling and what needs to be done next. Help is always welcome!

Rentals are still coming in fast and furious. Barb has 3 lined up for March; 2 in April, 7 for May and June is almost totally booked. Thanks Barb. Thanks to all who have followed up on updating their outstanding membership dues.

With the amount of winter uses, we will need to look at snow plowing and salting next year, I believe.

Jim Marino should have an update for us on Rec. Rowing dates etc. at the next meeting as well.

Bingo recently had an awesome month, thank you Jane and Tom. It's really helped keep the Alumni financially on the right path.

Thank you to all our newsletter sponsors who support us. We have many new ones this year. Please support them or recommend them to others.

Thanks to OLG and the City of St. Catharines.

The patio season, regatta season, work party season will soon be upon us. We will need the members help working the bar and bbq, yard duty, etc to help make it a successful season as the in past years. We will keep the members up to speed shortly.

Hope to see you at our next meeting Friday, March 10 at 7:00 pm.

Don Baker, President
